

MEDIA CONTACT:
Emily McDermott
410.568.8814
emcdermott@nevinspr.com

Maryland Council on Economic Education Appoints New Board Members

BALTIMORE, September 16, 2015 – The Maryland Council on Economic Education (MCEE), a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving economic and financial literacy in the state’s schools grades K-12, today announced that Steven Arbaugh and Kelly Winfield have been elected to the organization’s governing board of trustees.

Steven Arbaugh is the Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President of Finance and Accounting at SECU where he has worked for seven years. Before working at SECU he spent 30 years working for Provident Bank of Maryland. He serves on various boards holding different leadership positions including the Vice Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Credit Union National Association CFO Council and Chairman of the Council’s Regulatory Committee. He serves on the Advisory Board of the Towson University College of Business and Economics and is an honorary member of the Beta Gamma Sigma international honor society. He recently received the Baltimore SmartCEO Magazine’s CFO executive management award. Arbaugh earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Towson University and his Master of Finance degree from Loyola University.

Kelly Winfield is the Director of Compensation and Accounting at Legg Mason, Inc. where she has worked for over 15 years. During her time at Legg Mason she has held many different positions such as Assistant Manager of the Management Reporting team and working in the General Accounting team. Winfield has held a leadership position in Legg Mason’s Women’s Leadership Network since 2013. She earned her bachelor’s degree in accounting and an MBA from University of Baltimore. Winfield is also a licensed CPA in Maryland.

“The board of MCEE cares immensely about ensuring that young Marylanders are prepared to be financially capable participants in our economy,” said Mary Ann Hewitt, executive director of the Maryland Council on Economic Education. “Steven and Kelly will contribute to the advancement of our organization with new ideas and improvements from two different and knowledgeable perspectives.”

About Maryland Council on Economic Education

For more than 60 years, the Maryland Council on Economic Education (MCEE) has worked to assure that Maryland’s school children leave high school equipped with the economic and financial literacy knowledge and decision-making skills they will need to make informed, rational decisions as consumers, workers, citizens, savers, investors, and participants in the global economy. MCEE is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and affiliate of the national Council For Economic Education.

###