

MEDIA CONTACT:
Emily McDermott
410.568.8814
emcdermott@nevinspr.com

Cynthia D. Allen Joins Maryland Council on Economic Education's Board of Trustees

BALTIMORE, February 26, 2015 – The Maryland Council on Economic Education (MCEE), a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving economic and financial literacy in the State's schools grades K-12, today announced that Cynthia D. Allen has been elected to its governing board of trustees.

Allen is Vice President – Financial Advisor, Consulting Group at RBC Wealth Management, where she advises high net worth clients and their families on how to manage all aspects of their finances. She also advises them on preparing and implementing wealth management programs.

After graduating from Marietta College in Ohio with a Bachelor of Science degree in Organic Chemistry, she went on to earn a certificate in business from Goucher College. Allen has taught in the Odyssey program of the Johns Hopkins University.

As an advocate for aging, Allen is the Chair of the Baltimore County Commission on Aging. She speaks to for-profit and non-profit organizations on a variety of investment topics. She serves as Secretary of the Baltimore Women's Forum, and is a board member of the Ruxton Riderwood Lake Roland Area Improvement Association.

About Maryland Council on Economic Education

For more than 60 years, the Maryland Council on Economic Education (MCEE) has worked to assure that Maryland's school children leave high school equipped with the economic and financial literacy knowledge and decision-making skills they will need to make informed, rational decisions as consumers, workers, citizens, savers, investors, and participants in the global economy. MCEE is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

###